IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING YOUR SIMPLE IRA ACCOUNT

As an employer who sponsors a SIMPLE IRA plan for our employees, we are required by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) to provide you with plan information and to notify you that you will be eligible to participate in our SIMPLE IRA plan during 2024. The annual contribution limits are disclosed below.

PLAN INFORMATION

Attached is your copy of IRS Form 5304-SIMPLE. The IRS Form 5304-SIMPLE details the provisior our SIMPLE IRA plan. Please read through the Form. You can make or change salary reduction elect by completing the section called "Model Salary Reduction Agreement" (below "Model Notificatio Eligible Employees" on page 3 of IRS Form 5304-SIMPLE) and returning it	ions n to to
(name of office or contact person) by December 31st. This p	page will provide you with the opportunity to elect or change your rate of salary deferral contributions	s. In addition, we have attached a copy of the "EQUI-VEST® Procedures for SIMPLE IRA 1	Plan
Withdrawals/Rollovers."
MAXIMUM ANNUAL CONTRIBUTION

For 2023, you were permitted to defer a maximum annual amount of $15,500. After 2023, this amount may be increased for cost-of-living adjustments.

In addition to maximum deferral limits described above, if you are at least age 50 or older on or before December 31, 2024, you may also be allowed to defer an additional amount as a "catch-up" contribution. The maximum catch-up contribution for SIMPLE IRA plans was $3,500 for 2023. After 2023, this amount may be increased for cost-of-living adjustments.

So, for example (assuming the contribution limits remain the same for 2023), if you are 45 years old, you can elect to defer no more than $15,500 for 2023. If you will turn age 50 at any time during calendar year 2024, you can elect by December 31, 2023 to defer up to $19,000 for 2024, even though your 50th birthday is not until November or December 2024.
