Summary Prospectus for New Investors
May 1, 2026

This summary prospectus (the "Summary Prospectus") summarizes key features of the contract. Before you invest, you should also review the statutory prospectus (the "Prospectus") for the contract, which contains more information about the contract's features, benefits, and risks. You can find this document and other information about the contract online at www.equitable.com/ICSR#EQH154183. You can also obtain this information at no cost by calling 1-877-522-5035, by sending an email request to EquitableFunds@dfinsolutions.com, or by calling your financial intermediary.

You invest to accumulate value on a tax-deferred basis in one or more of our investment options: (i) variable investment options and (ii) the account for dollar cost averaging. The investment options are listed in Appendix "Investment options available under the contract".

The Investment Edge[®] ADV series is available through advisors who charge an advisory fee for their services, and this fee is in addition to contract fees and expenses. If you elect to pay the advisory fee from your account value, then this deduction will be treated as a withdrawal and will reduce the standard death benefit, the Protected premium death benefit, and payments under the Income Edge payment program, and may also be subject to taxes and possible tax penalties.

The Securities and Exchange Commission has not approved or disapproved these securities or passed upon the adequacy of this Prospectus. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

The contract is a complex investment that involves risks, including potential loss of principal. You should speak with a financial professional about the features, benefits, risks, and fees and whether the contract is appropriate for you based on your financial situation and objectives.

The contract is not a short-term investment and is not appropriate for an investor who needs ready access to cash. Withdrawals could result in withdrawal charges, taxes, and tax penalties.

All guarantees are subject to the Company's financial strength and claims paying ability.

You may cancel your contract within 10 days of receiving it without paying fees or penalties. In some states, this cancellation period may be longer. Upon cancellation, you will receive either a full refund of the amount you paid with your application or your total account value. You should review the Prospectus, or consult with your investment professional, for additional information about the specific cancellation terms that apply.

We reserve the right to stop accepting any application or contribution from you at any time, including after you purchase the contract. If you have the Protected premium death benefit and we exercise our right to discontinue the acceptance of, and/or place additional limitations on, contributions to the contract you may no longer be able to fund your benefit. This means that you may no longer be able to increase your benefit base through contributions.

Additional information about certain investment products, including variable annuities, has been prepared by the Securities and Exchange Commission's staff and is available at Investor.gov.

Overview of the Contract

Purpose of the Contract

The contract is designed to help you accumulate assets through investments in underlying Portfolios during the accumulation phase. It can provide or supplement your retirement income by providing a stream of income payments during the annuity phase. It also provides death benefits to protect your beneficiaries. The contract may be appropriate if you have a long-term investment horizon. It is not intended for people who may need to access invested funds within a short-term timeframe or frequently, or who intend to engage in frequent transfers of the underlying Portfolios.

Phases of the Contract

The contract has two phases: an accumulation (savings) phase and an income (annuity) phase.

Accumulation (Savings) Phase

During the accumulation phase, you can allocate your contributions to one or more of the available investment options, which include:

- variable investment options, and
- the account for dollar cost averaging.

For additional information about each investment option see Appendix "Investment options available under the contract."

Income (Annuity) Phase

You enter the income phase when you annuitize your contract. During the income phase, you will receive a stream of fixed income payments for the annuity payout period of time you elect. You can elect to receive annuity payments (1) for life; (2) for life with a certain minimum number of payments; or (3) for life with a certain amount of payment. Please note that when you annuitize, your investments are converted to income payments and you will no longer be able to make any additional withdrawals from your contract. All accumulation phase benefits terminate upon annuitization and the contract has a maximum annuity commencement date.

Contract Features

The contract provides for the accumulation of retirement savings and income. The contract offers income and death benefit protection, and offers various payout options.

Contract Classes

You can purchase one of three contract classes that have different ongoing fees and withdrawal charges. For example, the contract offers Investment Edge[®] with a 6 year withdrawal charge period and a 1.10% contract fee, Investment Edge[®] Select with no withdrawal charge and a 1.25% contract fee, and Investment Edge[®] ADV with no withdrawal charge and a 0.30% contract fee.

Death Benefits

Your contract includes a standard death benefit that pays your beneficiaries an amount equal to your account value. For an additional fee, you can purchase the Protected premium death benefit ("PPDB") that provides different minimum payment guarantees.

Rebalancing and Dollar Cost Averaging

You can elect to have your account value automatically rebalanced at no additional charge. We offer two rebalancing programs that you can use to automatically reallocate your account value among your variable investment options. You can also elect to allocate your investments using a dollar cost averaging program at no additional charge. Generally, you may not elect both a dollar cost averaging program and a rebalancing option.

Access to Your Money

During the accumulation phase you can take withdrawals from your contract. Withdrawals (including automatic or systematic withdrawals, required minimum distributions, and withdrawals to pay advisory fees under a Series ADV contract) will reduce your account value and may be subject to withdrawal charges and income taxes, as well as a tax penalty if you are younger than 59½. Withdrawals will also generally reduce your guaranteed benefits and the amount of the reduction may be greater than the dollar amount of the withdrawal.

Income Edge Payment Program

You can elect an Income Edge payment program, which will pay out your entire account value via scheduled payments over a set period of time, with a portion of each payment being a return of your cost basis in the contract and thus excludable from taxes. The Income Edge payment program versions are not available for contracts with applications signed on or after August 19, 2024.

Advisory Fees

Series ADV contracts are only available through advisors who charge an advisory fee for their services, and this fee is in addition to contract fees and expenses. If you elect to pay the advisory fee from your account value (by taking withdrawals), then these deductions will reduce the account value and could reduce the death benefit. Withdrawals to pay advisory fees will be subject to taxes and possible tax penalties. You should consider using a source other than the account value under the contract to pay advisory fees, if possible, to avoid these potential consequences. See "Fee-based expenses" in "Charges and expenses" in the Prospectus for more information about advisory fees and expenses under fee based programs.

Other contracts

We offer a variety of fixed and variable annuity contracts. They may offer features, including investment options, credits, fees, death or income guarantee benefits and/or charges that are different from those in the contracts offered by this Prospectus. Not every contract is offered through every selling broker-dealer. Some selling broker-dealers may not offer and/or limit the offering of certain features or options, as well as limit the availability of the contracts, based on issue age or other criteria established by the selling broker-dealer. Upon request, your financial professional can show you information regarding our other annuity contracts that he or she distributes. You can also contact us to find out more about the availability of any of our annuity contracts.

You should work with your financial professional to decide whether this contract and any optional benefit is appropriate for you based on a thorough analysis of your particular insurance needs, financial objectives, investment goals, tax planning needs, time horizons and risk tolerance.

Fee based programs

You may purchase an Investment Edge® ADV contract only if you are a participant in an account established under a fee-based program sponsored and maintained by a registered broker-dealer or other financial intermediary we approve. If you elect to pay the advisory fee from your account value, then this deduction will be treated as a withdrawal and will reduce the standard death benefit, the Protected premium death benefit, and payments under the Income Edge payment program, and may also be subject to federal and state income taxes and a 10% federal penalty tax. See "Fee based programs" in "Purchasing the contract" in the Prospectus for more information.

Important Information You Should Consider About The Contract

FEES AND EXPENSES

Are There Charges or Adjustments for Early Withdrawals?

Yes. Each series of the contract provides for different withdrawal charge periods and percentages.

Investment Edge® — If you surrender your contract, apply cash value to a non-life contingent annuity payout option, or withdraw money from an Investment Edge® contract within 6 years following your last contribution, you will be assessed a withdrawal charge of up to 6% of contributions, withdrawn. For example, if you make a withdrawal in the first year, you could pay a withdrawal charge of up to $6,000 on a $100,000 investment. This loss will be greater if there are taxes, or tax penalties.

Investment Edge® Select — No withdrawal charge.

Investment Edge® ADV — No withdrawal charge.

For additional information about charges for surrenders and early withdrawals see “Withdrawal charge” in “Charges and expenses” in the Prospectus.

Are There Transaction Charges?

Yes. In addition to withdrawal charges, you may also be charged for other transactions including special requests such as wire transfers, express mail, duplicate contracts, preparing checks, third-party transfers or exchanges; or when you transfer between investment options in excess a certain number.

For additional information about transaction charges see “Charges that the Company deducts” in “Charges and expenses” in the Prospectus.

Are There Ongoing Fees and Expenses?

Yes. Each series of the contract provides for different ongoing fees and expenses.

The table below describes the fees and expenses that you may pay each year, depending on the investment options and optional benefits you choose. For Investment Edge® ADV contracts, the fees and expenses in the table below do not reflect any advisory fees paid to financial intermediaries from the contract value or other assets of the owner; if such fees were reflected the below fees and charges would be higher. Please refer to your contract specifications page for information about the specific fees you will pay each year based on the options you have elected.

Annual Fee	Minimum	Maximum
Base Contract (varies by contract series) ⁽¹⁾	0.30%	1.25%
Portfolio Company fees and expenses ⁽²⁾	0.54%	3.48%
Optional benefits available for an additional charge (for a single optional benefit, if elected) ⁽³⁾	0.60%	40.00%

(1) Expressed as an annual percent of daily net assets in the variable investment options.

(2) Expressed as an annual percentage of daily net assets in the Portfolio. This range is for the year ended December 31, 2025 and could change from year to year.

(3) Expressed as an annual percentage of the Net Amount at Risk.

Because your contract is customizable, the choices you make affect how much you will pay. To help you understand the cost of owning your contract, the following table shows the lowest and highest cost you could pay each year, based on current charges. This estimate assumes that you do not take withdrawals from the contract, which could add withdrawal charges that substantially increase costs.

Lowest Annual Cost $809	Highest Annual Cost $3,840
Assumes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Investment of $100,000 • 5% annual appreciation • Least expensive combination of contract series and Portfolio fees and expenses • No optional benefits • No sales charges or advisory fees • No additional contributions, transfers or withdrawals 	Assumes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Investment of $100,000 • 5% annual appreciation • Most expensive combination of contract series (Investment Edge® Select), optional benefits (Protected premium death benefit) and Portfolio fees and expenses • No sales charges or advisory fees • No additional contributions, transfers or withdrawals

For additional information about ongoing fees and expenses see "Fee Table" in the Prospectus.

RISKS

Is There a Risk of Loss from Poor Performance?

Yes. The contract is subject to the risk of loss. You could lose some or all of your account value depending on the investment options you choose.

For additional information about the risk of loss see "Principal risks of investing in the contract" in the Prospectus.

Is this a Short-Term Investment?

No. The contract is not a short-term investment and is not appropriate for an investor who needs ready access to cash because the contract is designed to provide for the accumulation of retirement savings and income on a long-term basis. As such, you should not use the contract as a short-term investment or savings vehicle. A withdrawal charge may apply in certain circumstances and any withdrawals may also be subject to federal and state income taxes and tax penalties.

For additional information about the investment profile of the contract see "Fee Table" in the Prospectus.

What Are the Risks Associated with the Investment Options?

An investment in the contract is subject to the risk of poor investment performance and can vary depending on the performance of the variable investment options available under the contract, (e.g., the Portfolios). Each investment option has its own unique risks. You should review the investment options available under the contract before making an investment decision.

For additional information about the risks associated with investment options see "Variable investment options" and "Portfolios of the Trusts" in "Purchasing the Contract" in the Prospectus. See also Appendix "Investment options available under the contract" in the Prospectus.

What Are the Risks Related to the Insurance Company?

An investment in the contract is subject to the risks related to the Company. The Company is solely responsible to the contract owner for the contract's account value. The general obligations under the contract are supported by our general account and are subject to our claims-paying ability. An owner should look solely to our financial strength for our claims-paying ability. More information about the Company, including our financial strength ratings, may be obtained at <https://equitable.com/about-us/financial-strength-ratings>.

For additional information about insurance company risks see "About the general account" in "More information" in the Prospectus.

RESTRICTIONS

Are There Restrictions on the Investment Options?

Yes. We may, at any time, exercise our rights to limit or terminate your contributions, allocations and transfers to any of the variable investment options and to limit the number of variable investment options which you may select. Such rights include, among others, removing or substituting the Portfolios, combining any two or more variable investment options and transferring account value from any variable investment option to another variable investment option.

For more information see "About the Separate Account" in "More information" in the Prospectus.

Currently, we do not charge for transfers among investment options under the contract. However, we reserve the right to charge for any transfers in excess of 12 per contract year. We will provide you with advance notice if we decide to assess the transfer charge, which will never exceed $35 per transfer.

The availability of investment options may vary depending on the financial intermediary through which the contract is sold. See Appendix "Intermediary-specific variations" in the Prospectus.

For additional information about restrictions on the investment options, see "Transfer charge" in "Charges and expenses", "Portfolios of the Trusts" in "Purchasing the Contract" and "Transferring your money among investment options" in the Prospectus.

Are There any Restrictions on Contract Benefits?

Yes. At any time, we have the right to limit or terminate your ability to contribute to any of the investment options. If you have one or more guaranteed benefits like the Protected premium death benefit or Income Edge payment program (which are also known as optional benefits) and we exercise our right to discontinue the acceptance of, and/or place additional limitations on, contributions to the contract, you may no longer be able to fund your guaranteed benefit(s).

Withdrawals, including withdrawals to pay advisory fees, that exceed limits specified by the terms of an optional benefit may affect the availability of the benefit by reducing the benefit by an amount greater than the value withdrawn, and/or could terminate the benefit.

If you purchase an Investment Edge[®] ADV contract and you elect to pay the advisory fee from your account value, then this deduction will be treated as a withdrawal and will reduce the standard death benefit, the Protected premium death benefit, and payments under the Income Edge payment program, and may also be subject to federal and state income taxes and a 10% federal penalty tax. See "Fee based programs" in "Purchasing the contract" in the Prospectus.

The standard and optional death benefits offered with the contract are available only at contract purchase. Withdrawals could significantly reduce or terminate the death benefit.

The availability of contract benefits may vary depending on the financial intermediary through which the contract is sold. See Appendix "Intermediary-specific variations" in the Prospectus.

For additional information about the optional benefits see "How you can purchase and contribute to your contract" in "Purchasing the contract" and "Benefits available under the contract" in the Prospectus.

TAXES

What Are the Contract's Tax Implications?

You should consult with a tax professional to determine the tax implications of an investment in, and payments received under, the contract. There is no additional tax benefit to you if the contract is purchased through a tax-qualified plan or individual retirement account (IRA). Withdrawals will be subject to ordinary income tax and may be subject to tax penalties. Generally, you are not taxed until you make a withdrawal from the contract.

For additional information about tax implications see "Tax information" in the Prospectus.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

How Are Investment Professionals Compensated?

Some financial professionals may receive compensation for selling the contract to you, both in the form of commissions or in the form of contribution-based compensation. Financial professionals may also receive additional compensation for enhanced marketing opportunities and other services (commonly referred to as "marketing allowances"). This conflict of interest may influence the financial professional to recommend this contract over another investment.

For additional information about compensation to financial professionals see "Distribution of the contracts" in "More information" in the Prospectus.

Should I Exchange My Contract?

Some financial professionals may have a financial incentive to offer a new contract in place of the one you already own. You should only exchange your contract if you determine, after comparing the features, fees, and risks of both contracts, as well as any fees or penalties to terminate your existing contract, that it is preferable to purchase the new contract rather than continue to own your existing contract.

For additional information about exchanges see and "Charge for third-party transfer or exchange" in "Charges and expenses" in the Prospectus.

Benefits Available Under the Contract

Summary of Benefits

The following tables summarize important information about the benefits available under the contract.

Death Benefits

These death benefits are available during the accumulation phase:

Buying the Contract

You may purchase a contract by making payments to us that we call “contributions.” We can refuse to accept an application from you or any contribution from you at any time, including after you purchase the contract. We require a minimum contribution amount for each type of contract purchased. Maximum contribution limitations also apply.

Maximum issue age

The maximum issue age for non-qualified, IRA and qualified plan contracts is 85. The maximum issue age for inherited NQ and inherited IRA beneficiary continuation contracts is 75 and 70, respectively.

Minimum initial and subsequent contribution amounts

The minimum initial contribution is generally $10,000 for Investment Edge® contracts and $25,000 for Investment Edge® Select and Investment Edge® ADV contracts. Each subsequent contribution generally must be at least $500 (except for certain IRAs—$50 for Traditional and Roth IRAs and $1,000 for an Inherited IRA), unless you enroll in the automatic investment program.

Limitations on contributions to the contract

We reserve the right to refuse to accept any contribution under the contract at any time or change our contribution limits and requirements. This means that if you have one or more guaranteed benefits like the Protected premium death benefit or Income Edge payment program and we exercise our right to discontinue the acceptance of, and/or place additional limitations on, contributions to the contract you may no longer be able to fund the guaranteed benefit(s).

When initial and subsequent contributions are credited

Initial Contribution

If your application is in good order when we receive it for application processing purposes, your contribution will be applied within two business days. If any information we require to issue your contract is missing or unclear, we will hold your contribution while we try to obtain this information. If we are unable to obtain all of the information we require within five business days after we receive an incomplete application or form, we will inform the financial professional submitting the application on your behalf. We will then return the contribution to you, unless you or your financial professional acting on your behalf, specifically direct us to keep your contribution until we receive the required information. The contribution will be applied as of the date we receive the missing information.

Subsequent Contributions

If we receive a subsequent contribution before the close of the NYSE (typically 4:00 pm eastern), we will credit that contribution that day. If we receive your subsequent contribution after the close of the NYSE, your contribution will be applied the next business day.

Additional limitations on contributions to the contract

Additional limitations on contributions and the source of contributions apply based on the type of contract, such as non-qualified or particular types of IRAs. Please see the tables in the “Rules regarding contributions to your contract” appendix to the Prospectus for detailed information. You can obtain the Prospectus by calling the number or accessing the website noted on the first page of this summary.

Making Withdrawals: Accessing the Money in Your Contract

Accessing your money

You have several ways to access your account value before annuity payments begin. You may take partial withdrawals from your contract at any time or, depending on your specific situation, set up an automatic payment plan, a systematic withdrawal plan, a substantially equal withdrawals plan, Income Edge payment program or a lifetime RMD payments plan. You may also surrender your contract to receive its cash value at any time while an owner is living (or for contracts with non-natural owners, while an annuitant is living) and before you begin to receive annuity payments. If we receive a withdrawal or surrender request in good order before the close of the NYSE (typically 4:00 pm eastern), we will process the request that day. If we receive the request after the close of the NYSE, we will process the request on the next business day. We will generally send you the full requested withdrawal amount and deduct any applicable withdrawal charges from account value unless your request otherwise.

Withdrawals will reduce your account value and may be subject to withdrawal charges, income taxes and a tax penalty if you are younger than 59½. Withdrawals may also reduce (possibly on a greater than dollar-for-dollar basis) or terminate any guaranteed benefits. Surrenders also may be subject to withdrawal charges, income taxes and a tax penalty if you are younger than 59½.

Please see "Accessing your money" in the Prospectus for more information on the ways you may withdraw your account value.

If you own an Investment Edge® ADV contract and elect to pay advisory fees from your account value, then this deduction will be treated as a withdrawal and will reduce the standard death benefit, the Protected premium death benefit, and payments under the Income Edge payment program, and may also be subject to federal and state income taxes and a 10% federal penalty tax.

Free withdrawal amount

Each contract year you can withdraw a certain amount from your contract without paying a withdrawal charge.

When to expect payments

Generally, we will fulfill requests for payments out of the variable investment options within seven calendar days after the business day the transaction request is received by us in good order. These transactions may include applying proceeds to a payout annuity, transfers payment of a death benefit, payment of any amount you withdraw (less any withdrawal charge, if applicable) and, upon surrender, payment of the cash value.

Additional Information About Fees

The following tables describe the fees and expenses that you will pay when buying, owning, surrendering or making withdrawals from an investment option or from the contract. Please refer to your contract specifications page for information about the specific fees you will pay each year based on the options you have elected. The fees and expenses do not reflect any advisory fees paid to a financial intermediary from the contract or other assets of the owner and if such charges were reflected such fees and expenses would be higher.

The first table describes fees and expenses that you will pay at the time that you buy the contract, surrender or make withdrawals from an investment option or the contract, or transfer account value between investment options. Charges designed to approximate certain taxes that may be imposed on us, such as premium taxes in your state, may also apply.

Transaction Expenses
	Investment Edge [®]	Investment Edge [®] Select	Investment Edge [®] ADV

Third Party Transfer or Exchange Fee ⁽³⁾	$125	$125	$125
Special Service Charges ⁽⁴⁾	$90	$90	$90

(1) For Investment Edge[®] only, the charge percentage we use is determined by the number of years since receipt of the contribution to which the charge relates if you make the withdrawal, surrender your contract to receive its cash value, or, if offered, surrender your contract to apply your cash value to a non-life contingent annuity payment option.

	Contract Year
	1	2	3	4	5	6+
Investment Edge [®]	6%	6%	5%	4%	3%	0%

(2) Currently, we do not charge for transfers among investment options under the contract. However, we reserve the right to charge for transfers in excess of 12 transfers per contract year. We will charge no more than $35 for each transfer at the time each transfer is processed. See "Transfer charge" under "Charges that the Company deducts" in "Charges and expenses".

(3) Currently, we do not charge for third party transfers or exchanges. However, we reserve the right to discontinue this waiver at any time, with or without notice. The maximum third party transfer or exchange fee is $125. The current charge (which, as described above is waived) is $65. These charges may increase over time to cover our administrative costs. We may discontinue these services at any time.

(4) Special service charges include (1) express mail charge; (2) wire transfer charge; (3) duplicate contract charge; (4) check preparation charge; and (5) Duplicate Annual and/or Quarterly Statement of Account or Annual Payout Statement Charge. The current maximum charge for each service is $90. These charges may increase over time to cover our administrative costs. We may discontinue these services at any time.

The next table describes the fees and expenses that you will pay each year during the time that you own the contract (not including Portfolio fees and expenses). If you choose to purchase an optional benefit, you will pay additional charges, as shown below.

Protected premium death benefit charges ⁽⁴⁾	40.0% ⁽⁵⁾	40.0% ⁽⁵⁾	40.0% ⁽⁵⁾

(1) If your account value on a contract date anniversary is $50,000 or more there is no charge. If the contract is surrendered or annuitized or a death benefit is paid on any date other than the contract date anniversary, we will deduct a pro rata portion of the charge for that year. Otherwise we deduct the full charge. This charge will no longer apply to NQ contracts following Income Edge election, even if your account value falls below $50,000.

- (2) You may be eligible for a reduction in the Contract Fee. See "Breakpoint Credit" in "Purchasing the Contract" for more information.
- (3) On each day of your contract, your NAR is equal to (A) minus (B), where (A) equals your Protected premium death benefit base; and (B) equals your account value on that day. Your NAR can never be less than zero. For more information, see "Protected premium death benefit charge" in "Charges and expenses".
- (4) If on any date other than the contract date anniversary your contract is surrendered or annuitized, an Income Edge payment program is elected and becomes effective, a death benefit is paid, or the Protected Premium death benefit is otherwise terminated, we will deduct the cumulative accrued charge for that year from your account value.
- (5)

The next item shows the minimum and maximum total operating expenses charged by the underlying Portfolios that you may pay periodically during the time that you own the contract. Expenses shown may change over time and may be higher or lower in the future. A complete list of Portfolios available under the contract, including their annual expenses, may be found at the back of this document. See Appendix "Investment options available under the contract."

Annual Portfolio Expenses after Expense Limitation Arrangement (expenses that are deducted from Portfolio assets including management fees, 12b-1 fees, service fees, and other expenses) ^(*)	0.53%	3.29%

(*) "Annual Portfolio Expenses" are based, in part, on estimated amounts of such expenses. The expenses listed are for the year ended December 31, 2025. Pursuant to a contract, Equitable Investment Management Group, LLC has agreed to make payments or waive its management, administrative and other fees to limit the expenses of certain affiliated Portfolios through April 30, 2027 ("Expense Limitation Arrangement") (unless the Trust's Board of Trustees consents to an earlier revision or termination of this agreement). The Expense Limitation Arrangement may be terminated by Equitable Investment Management Group, LLC at any time after April 30, 2027. The Expense Limitation Arrangement does not apply to unaffiliated Portfolios.

Examples

These Examples are intended to help you compare the cost of investing in the variable investment options with the cost of investing in other annuity contracts that offer variable investment options. These costs include transaction expenses, annual contract expenses, and annual Portfolio expenses.

These Examples assume all account value is allocated to the variable investment options.

These Examples do not reflect any advisory fees paid to a financial intermediary from the contract or other assets of the owner and if such charges were reflected the costs would be higher.

These Examples assume that you invest $100,000 in the variable investment options for the time periods indicated. The Examples also assume that your investment has a 5% return each year and assume the most expensive combination of annual Portfolio expenses, Protected premium death benefit (at its maximum charge) and that all account value is in the variable investment options.

Although your actual costs may be higher or lower, based on these assumptions, your cost would be:

Variable Investment Options

The following is a list of Portfolio Companies available under the contract. More information about the Portfolio Companies is available in the prospectuses for the Portfolio Companies, which may be amended from time to time and can be found online at www.equitable.com/ICSR#EQH154183. You can request this information at no cost by calling 1-877-522-5035 or by sending an email request to EquitableFunds@dfinsolutions.com.

The current expenses and performance information below reflects fee and expenses of the Portfolios, but do not reflect the other fees and expenses that your Contract may charge. Expenses would be higher and performance would be lower if these other charges were included. Each Portfolio's past performance is not necessarily an indication of future performance.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR NOTICE

The Company retains any earnings on amounts held in its general account. These amounts include funds that are pending investment under insurance products as well as funds that have been disbursed from insurance products pending presentment for payment to the client, transferral to another insurance product or mutual fund, if permitted under applicable law, or the client's financial institution. Earnings on such amounts are generally at institutional money market rates. Investment and distribution options are described in the applicable variable insurance product prospectus, as amended to date, which either accompanies this notice or has been previously provided to you.

Generally, funds received in good order before the close of any business day (as defined in the product prospectus) will be credited to the specified investment option effective on that day. Funds that are pending investment include any amounts for which the Company has not yet received adequate instructions, documentation or the completed requirements necessary to enable it to allocate funds as directed by the contract owner. Funds that are awaiting investment will be allocated as directed by the contract owner effective on the business day that falls on or next follows the date the Company receives the completed instructions, documentation or requirements. The Company will receive any investment earnings through the end of the business day on which funds are allocated.

When the Company receives a request for any permissible distribution from an insurance product, which may include requests for partial withdrawals, loans, annuitization or death benefit payments, or full surrenders, as applicable, such distribution will be effective on the date we receive the request in good order. The Company will transfer any applicable separate account amounts to its general account on the process date, regardless of the effective date and send a check to the distributee or commence direct transfer of funds on that date. Amounts will remain in the Company's general account until the date the check is presented for payment or the direct transfer of funds is complete, the timing of which is beyond the Company's control. The Company will receive any investment earnings during the period such amounts remain in the general account. Upon request, the owner of the insurance product may receive from the Company a periodic report summarizing the status of any outstanding distributions, and the length of time such distributions tend to remain outstanding.*

*Not necessary for IRAs.

Important Notice Regarding Delivery of Client Documents

We believe that many of our customers would like us to eliminate duplicate mailings of certain documents to them. We would like to do this too in order to reduce costs and help benefit the environment.

Changes in SEC regulations allow us to send single copies of documents such as Prospectuses, EQ Advisors Trust's Annual and Semi-Annual Reports to our clients who own the same type of variable insurance contract and live at a common address. We began mailing single copies of these documents in 2001.

In the event that you wish to continue receiving multiple mailings of these documents, where a separate copy is sent to each individual contract owner residing at the same address, please call us at 1-877-927-2632 within 60 days.

Thank you for your continued support.
