*** Refer to the table on the following pages for Market Stabilizer Option® II (MSO II) availability.

† The Substitution of Insured (SOI) rider is not available on VUL Optimizer®, Series 160 policies with app signed dates of September 7, 2021 or later. Exercise of the SOI rider is no longer allowed on VUL Optimizer®, Series 160 policies with register dates before January 1, 2021. Policies sold with the SOI rider in 2021 will be allowed to utilize the SOI rider through 2022, and possibly beyond that if the Section 7702 interest rates are not changed again per the IRC provision.

†† For a listing of Long-Term Care Services<sup>SM</sup> Rider forms, please refer to the Long-Term Care Services<sup>SM</sup> Rider State Availability Chart at equitable.com/ltc. In Florida, this is the Long-Term Care Insurance Rider. In California, this is the Comprehensive Long-Term Care Rider.

For additional product and rider information, please see the VUL Optimizer®, Series 160 Product Guide, Catalog #160400.

In jurisdictions where the MSO II is approved, illustrations and applications offering the MSO II are available as of the corresponding date shown in the table above. In jurisdictions where the MSO II is not approved, the existing MSO will remain available for VUL Optimizer®, Series 160 policies, as applicable.
