

Important Information to Assist with Completion of DB 450 Claim Form - Part C

Valued Customer:

There are two sections of the DB 450 Claim Form (Employer Section Part C) where clarification may be helpful. We hope this document will aid in completion of the claim form.

Requesting Reimbursement:

In the Employer Section (Part C) of the DB 450 Claim form, we ask if wages were paid during the disability period, and whether or not the employer wishes to be reimbursed by Equitable Financial Life Insurance Company.

Article 9 (NY DBL Law) § 237 of the New York Workers' Compensation Law states an employer, may be reimbursed by the New York DBL carrier during a claim for any time the employer has advanced monies to the claimant if the claim for reimbursement is filed with the carrier prior to payment of benefits by the carrier. Here are some items for your consideration when determining whether or not to be reimbursed by Equitable Financial Life Insurance Company:

- Advancement of monies by the employer must be employer-sponsored monies.
- Vacation and PTO time are not considered employer-sponsored, but instead are considered employee-earned time, and thus are not a reduction to DBL benefits nor a basis for reimbursement.
Note: Required sick time via state or city ordinances (e.g. NYC) may not be considered employer-sponsored and therefore benefits may be payable to the employee.
- Salary continuation and sick time are considered employer-sponsored and are reimbursable by Equitable.
Note: Required sick time via state or city ordinances (e.g. NYC) may not be considered employer-sponsored and therefore may not be reimbursable.
- Reimbursement of benefit money to the employer allows the employer to continue salary, and withhold the appropriate FICA taxes.
- Reimbursed funds from Equitable are payable to the employer and taxes are not withheld.
- When requesting reimbursement, be sure to include the entire period of time that reimbursement is requested should the claim extend to full duration of New York DBL.

Taxability of Benefits:

Please see the below excerpt from IRS Publication 15A to assist you in calculating the taxable percent of benefits. Taxability is expected to be less than 100 percent when the employee is contributing to the cost of the coverage.

Excerpt from IRS Publication 15A, Page 17 and 18: Group policy. If both the employer and the employee contributed to the sick pay plan under a group insurance policy, figure the taxable sick pay by multiplying total sick pay by the percentage of the policy's cost that was contributed by the employer for the 3 policy years before the calendar year in which the sick pay is paid. If the policy has been in effect fewer than 3 years, use the cost for the policy years in effect or, if in effect less than 1 year, a reasonable estimate of the cost for the first policy year.

Example. Alan is employed by Edgewood Corporation. Because of an illness, he was absent from work for 3 months during 2015. Key Insurance Company paid Alan $2,000 sick pay for each month of his absence under a policy paid for by contributions from both Edgewood and its employees. All of the employees' contributions were paid with after-tax dollars. For the 3 policy years before 2015, Edgewood paid 70% of the policy's cost and its employees paid 30%.

Because 70% of the sick pay paid under the policy is due to Edgewood's contributions, $1,400 ($$2,000 \times 70\%$) of each payment made to Alan is taxable sick pay. The remaining $600 of each payment that is due to employee contributions is not taxable sick pay and is not subject to employment taxes. Also, see Example of Figuring and Reporting Sick Pay, later in this section.

IF YOU ARE UNABLE TO WORK BECAUSE OF A NON-OCCUPATIONAL ILLNESS OR INJURY, YOU MAY BE ENTITLED TO DISABILITY BENEFITS

1. Your employer is required by law to provide for the payment of disability benefits to his/her employees.
2. Statutory disability benefits are payable for any non-work related injury or illness (including disability due to pregnancy) beginning with the 8th consecutive day of disability. Benefits are payable for up to 26 weeks. The total amount of combined paid family and disability leave an employee may take in a 52 consecutive week period may not exceed 26 weeks. Benefit payments are based on your average weekly wages for the eight weeks immediately prior to your disability, and are subject to the maximum allowable by the law in effect on the initial day of disability. Your employer or union may provide for different benefits which are at least as favorable as statutory benefits under an approved Disability Benefits Plan or Agreement.
3. TO CLAIM BENEFITS you should file written notice and proof of disability (Claim Form DB-450) with your employer or the insurance carrier named below within 30 days from the first day of your disability, or all or part of your claim may be rejected. In no event should you wait more than 26 weeks from that date to file a claim. You may obtain Form DB-450 from your employer, its insurance carrier, your health care provider or by contacting the Workers' Compensation Board. (See address and telephone number below.) Do not assume that your employer has filed a claim on your behalf; claim filing is your responsibility.
4. You are entitled to be treated by any physician, chiropractor, dentist, nurse-midwife, podiatrist or psychologist of your choice. Unlike workers' compensation, your medical bills will not be paid by your employer or the insurance carrier, unless your employer and/or union provides for the payment of medical bills under an approved Disability Benefits Plan or Agreement.
5. Disability benefits are to be paid directly to you by the insurance carrier, not through your employer, unless your employer is an approved self-insurer.
6. If your employer or the insurance carrier contends that you are not entitled to the payment of disability benefits, they are required to send you a Notice of Rejection, within 45 days of the filing of your claim, telling you the reasons benefits are not being paid. If you disagree with their rejection, you have a legal right to request a review of the rejection by the Workers' Compensation Board. IMPORTANT: If within 45 days of filing your claim you do not receive benefits and do not receive a Notice of Rejection (Form DB-451), promptly contact the Workers' Compensation Board at the telephone number below.
7. If your disability is the result of an automobile accident and you have filed a claim for no-fault benefits, you must also file a claim (Form DB-450) for disability benefits. If you do not file for disability benefits, the no-fault insurer may reduce your no-fault payments. IMPORTANT: In such cases, if you are not entitled to disability benefits, immediately advise the no-fault insurance carrier.
8. Your employer may not ask you to waive your right to disability benefits nor may your employer deduct more than 60 cents a week (unless the additional contribution is part of an approved plan) from your pay to contribute to the payment of disability benefits insurance premiums. You cannot be discharged or discriminated against for filing a claim for disability benefits.

IF YOU HAVE DIFFICULTY IN OBTAINING A CLAIM FORM OR NEED HELP IN FILLING IT OUT, OR IF YOU HAVE ANY OTHER QUESTIONS OR PROBLEMS ABOUT A NON-WORK RELATED INJURY OR ILLNESS, CONTACT ANY OFFICE OF THE WORKERS' COMPENSATION BOARD.
