A.M. Best: A.M. Best's Financial Strength Rating is an opinion of an insurer's ability to meet its obligations to policyholders. A.M. Best ratings range from A++ to S. A plus (+) or minus (-) following the rating shows relative standing within the major rating categories. The "A" rating for Equitable Financial represents the third highest among 15 rating levels.

Moody's: Moody's Insurance Financial Strength Ratings are opinions of the ability of insurance companies to repay punctually senior policyholder claims and obligations. Moody's ratings range from Aaa to C. Moody's applies numerical modifiers 1, 2 and 3 in each rating classification from Aa to Caa. The modifier 1 indicates that the obligation ranks in the higher end of its rating category; the modifier 2 indicates a mid-range ranking; and a modifier 3 indicates a ranking in the lower end of that rating category. The "A1" rating for Equitable America represents the fifth highest among 21 rating levels. A variable annuity is a long-term financial product designed for retirement purposes. An annuity is a contractual agreement in which payment(s) are made to an insurance company, which agrees to pay out an income or a lump-sum amount at a later date. Variable annuities are subject to market risk, including the possible loss of principal invested, and they have mortality and expense charges, account fees, investment management fees, administrative fees and charges for special contract features, and restrictions and limitations.

Standard & Poor's: A Standard & Poor's Insurer Financial Strength Rating is a current opinion of the financial security characteristics of an insurance organization with respect to its ability to pay under its insurance policies and contracts in accordance with their terms. Standard & Poor's ratings range from AAA to R. A plus (+) or minus (-) following the rating shows relative standing within the major rating categories. The "A+" rating for Equitable represents the fifth highest among 20 rating levels.

A variable annuity is a long-term financial product designed for retirement purposes.
